

It is my desire to be on equal footing as hearing people. And to have the right and freedom to choose any VRS provider. I would like it to be easy for me to communicate with my family and friends just like you hearing people do.